Description

GTK with winamp cover (for Drag and drop support)

After pressing the buttons quickly.

$ audacious -G
[xcb] Unknown sequence number while processing queue
[xcb] Most likely this is a multi-threaded client and XInitThreads has not been called [xcb] Aborting, sorry about that.
audacious: ../../src/xcb_io.c:260: poll_for_event: La declaración `!xcb_xlib_threads_sequence_lost
' no se cumple.

It affects 4.0.5 also compiled by me

- Status changed from New to Rejected

Audacious doesn't interact with xcb directly -- this would have to be a GTK (or xcb) bug, most likely.

Closing -- I'm sorry that we don't currently have the resources to investigate this more for you.

It seems that with having everything up to date in Linux Mint, right now it does not fail, so you are absolutely right

Thank you
