It works perfectly here (XFCE 4.10).

It works also for me with Gnome 3.6b2.

I tested Ubuntu 12.04 with Unity just now, and though Unity does not display the icon, the "close to tray icon" behavior still works; the program continues to run and music continues to play.

I have compiled the version 3.3.2 and same problem.

I can't reproduce this even with Ubuntu 12.04.1 and gnome-shell.
Have you tried using a clean user profile?

Please tell us next time you are using the Winamp skin.
Now I am able to reproduce the issue.
