Description

I think it would be great if users could see whether only one song is being repeated or the entire playlist...

I'm sure this has been discussed billions of times, my suggestion would be, based on experiences with other apps (I mean, I have seen this before), that within the loop icon there could be a "1" or an "all" (or a ∞ symbol standing for "infinity" instead of "all") *

- "1" would translate to "repeat + no advance after this song"
- "all" or " ∞ " would translate to "repeat + advance after this song"*

the icon itself seems spacious enough to accommodate an extra component :)
